Letter to the Editor—Austin American Statesman  July 12, 2016.  This was in response to an earlier letter suggesting that since a lot of poor people who are law-abiding citizens in Texas don’t have air conditioning, then why should we provide that to prisoners?

Lewis Bowden is a former student at Texas State.